THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE N.V. RAMANA

W.P. No. 1574 of 2003

Oral order:

When the matter is taken up for hearing, neither the petitioners nor their counsel are present nor is there any representation made on their behalf.

However, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondent No.3 submitted that in view the new Regulations, the question involved in this writ petition whether the respondents are justified in calling for objections for issuance of No Objection Certificate for establishment of B.Ed. Colleges, no more survives, and as such, the writ petition itself has become infructuous.

Placing the submission of the counsel for respondent No.3 on record, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs.
